RACE TO THE FINISH LINE

With a Custom Promotion

The Story of the custom Marmon Wasp Figurine

Marmon Holdings Inc. reached out to promotions representative (Sherry) inquiring about the need for a custom gift/giveaway that could be distributed at company events.

"Marmon was open to the many ideas I presented. In particular, I devised an idea combining Marmon history with the current company owner, Berkshire Hathaway. My idea was to take a symbol of Marmon history, The Marmon Wasp, the first car to win in the first Indy 500 race and to combine Warren Buffet himself with this history. I presented the concept to our product design department to show them photos of the Wasp and Warren. I asked if we could develop a figure of the Wasp with Warren driving. 3D concept artwork was developed and presented to Marmon. They liked what they saw and gave the concept the 'green light'. I worked closely with our sourcing and buying teams to source, negotiate, produce and deliver The Marmon Wasp figure on time and within budget."

Sherry McCartney – National Account Rep.

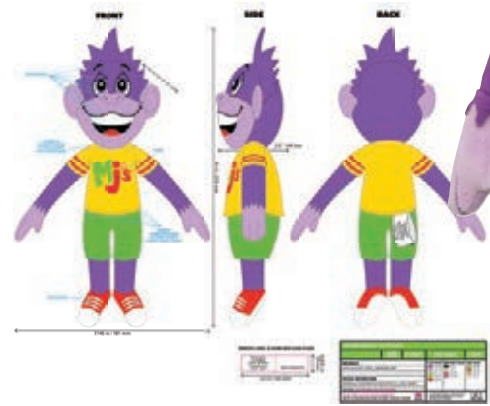

No Monkey Business — Only Exceptional Product Design

Monkey Joe's

"We've been partnering with Fun Express for a few years to develop and produce our exclusive branded promotional items. Steve has been instrumental in guiding us from ideation and product design through product sourcing all the way to delivery. Our mascot, Monkey Joe, went from a 2D drawing to a 3D plushie kids love to grab! We look forward to partnering with Fun Express on future custom product projects."

Julie – Vice President

H&H Automotive Group

"We were seeking a solution for branded Jeep ducks for our dealership. After an extensive search, the only options we found were late shipping bulk orders with long lead times. Sherry, our Fun Express representative, contacted us with exactly what we needed, branded ducks in the order size we prefer. Sherry is responsive, and the order turnaround is incredibly fast."

Tom – Marketing Director H&H Automotive Group

Dirty Dick's Crab House

"Our ultimate kiddie cocktail, Shark Attack!, continues to bring whimsy and delight to our youngest clients. Fun Express sources the sharks and prints our brand on the sharks with food safe ink. Our Fun Express representative, Sherry, is great to work with and always working to keep us stocked full of fun. We look forward to partnering with Fun Express in the future!"

Robert – General Manager

Los Rios Cantina

"Sherry actively reached out to me at Los Rios Cantina detailing the possibilities of Fun Express's offering of food and drink safe novelties that can be branded with food safe ink. We have been pleased with our experience working with Fun Express for our custom drink ducks at Los Rios Cantina. Their products add a fun touch to our beverage offerings, and our customers enjoy them. Sherry, our representative, has been a pleasure to work with. She is knowledgeable, responsive, and has made the process seamless from start to finish. We appreciate the attention to detail and support we've received. Overall, we look forward to continuing our collaboration with Fun Express."
